Nikola Pešić Releases SKIES – Now Available on Vinyl, CD, and as Sheet Music (Printed & Digital)

An emotional, powerful, cinematic neoclassical journey—SKIES invites listeners to find their own sky.

Bern, Switzerland – [8. April 2025] – Serbian-born, Switzerland-based pianist and composer Nikola Pešić proudly announces the official release of his new album SKIES, now available worldwide on vinyl, CD, and as a sheet music book in printed and digital formats. Released by the independent label Neonic Music, SKIES is an invitation to pause, breathe, and feel. First introduced to audiences in digital format in late 2024, SKIES swiftly captured the attention of both listeners and curators, earning spots on prominent playlists worldwide and striking a chord with audiences drawn to contemporary classical piano music.

Composed between 2019 and 2022, SKIES is a deeply personal collection of ten piano pieces, most of which were born through spontaneous improvisation—straight from the heart. “What I couldn't express in words, I tried to capture in sound,” Pešić explains. The album's title, SKIES, in plural, symbolizes the idea that each of us has our own sky—our own story, happiness, and path—yet together, we form one infinite whole.

Themes of nostalgia, transience, memories, nature, mistakes we repeat, pressures we feel, hope we hold onto, and love we believe in all find their voice in this cinematic, meditative piano experience. As Pešić says, “Close your eyes and immerse yourself in SKIES.”

Highlights from the album:

“Light White” – A powerful, emotional, and optimistic piece created in a single breath. With its uplifting energy, it reminds us that some chances only come once. Fans often compare it to Yiruma's “River Flows in You.”

“In the Circle” – A musical reflection on repeated mistakes, obsessive thoughts, trends that come and go. It has the warm glow of the 80s and the vibrant energy of a childhood carousel—one of the composer's favorites.

“STARA” (Old) – A nostalgic piece that feels like home. It tells a story of the past that is both melancholic and comforting. “Everyone has nostalgia in them—mine sounds like this.”

About Nikola Pešić

Nikola Pešić is a Swiss-based pianist and composer originally from Serbia. At the age of seven, he received his first keyboard and cassette player and spent hours recording and composing music. His formal music education began at the age of nine and culminated in a double Master's degree at the Bern University of the Arts. In addition to piano, Nikola also studied chamber music, improvisation and contemporary music.

Nikola's music transcends traditional genres, blending elements of classical music, pop, repetitive, meditative patterns, and jazz. His compositions create cinematic soundscapes that transport listeners and leave no one indifferent. Minimalist yet expressive, intimate yet expansive—Pešić's music invites each listener into a deeply personal space.

“I love simple, minimalist things—in music and in life. Saying a lot with just a few notes is the greatest challenge and joy. I want my music to be a space where people can feel, imagine, and reconnect with themselves.”
